Mr. Krokos's Kindergarten Monthly News Letter

November 2017

“Thanksgiving was never meant to be shut up in a single day.
~Robert Caspar Lintner.”

Here at school we are busy wrapping up the first quarter. Our school year is well underway! Kindergarten is going to start working hard in class on their Kid Writing. Kid Writing gets the students excited about the writing process by focusing on what they know instead of stressing over what they don't. For more information on Kid Writing be sure to check the class website.

Report cards will be coming out 11/09. You can login to see your child progress through the Skyward link on the csdcomets.org home page. If you do not have a username and password please contact the office, as paper report cards will not be sent home.

Also get ready because open house is quickly approaching! While I try to allow you access into our classroom anytime through the class website, I encourage you to attend Fairview's Open House 11/14 from 6:00 – 8:00 pm.. The students are excited to show you where they sit and all the wonderful things they do in class.

Additionally, parent teacher conferences take place on 11/28. I will be contacting everyone shortly about setting up a time that works best for you to come in. If you are unable to attend a face to face conference on 11/28 we can conference via email or telephone on that day. Please feel free to contact me at anytime with your concerns, or to set up a conference at anytime.

On the Web:

Report cards aren't just for students, parents and Guardians get Report cards too! Check out this site...
